MONTHLY HIGHLIGHT

WORK BASED LEARNING KEY FOR TALENT PIPELINE

NC TECH member HCLTech was recently recognized as the Wake Tech Work-Based Learning Employer of the Year. Opportunities for students to experience work environments, real-world projects, and application of classroom learning is key for developing a quality talent pipeline.

"HCLTech is proud and honored to be recognized as Wake Tech's WBL Employer of the Year," said Susan Winton, the head of Rise at HCLTech Academy. "HCLTech strives to provide opportunities for budding professionals to enter the tech sector, and it has been a privilege to partner with Wake Tech to find innovative ways to grow our talent at HCLTech and offer unique professional opportunities for the Wake County area."

Wake Tech is one of 58 campuses of the NC Community College system, all working to meet NC employer needs around talent for the future, including demand for students in information technology fields. Learn more about Wake Tech's Work-Based Learning efforts or connect with Andrea Fleming at NC TECH about opportunities in other areas of the state.

RESEARCH UNDERWRITERS

With the support of underwriters, NC TECH commissions + releases research on the state's tech sector for the benefit of our members, and as a resource for policy makers, economic development leaders, and the media. Thank you to the 2022 Research Underwriters. For more information about becoming a Research Underwriter, visit nctech.org/research and select the Underwriter's Menu button.
